- I shall see him, but not now, I shall behold him, but not near. A star will certainly step forth out of Jacob, and a scepter will indeed rise out of Israel. And he will certainly break apart the temples of Moab's head and the cranium of all the sons of tumult of war. (Numbers 24:17)
- And there proved to be strong kings over Jerusalem and governing all beyond the River, and tax, tribute and toll were being given to them. (Ezra 4:20)
- Look! An Assyrian, a cedar in Lebanon, pretty in bough, with a woody thicket offering shadow, and high in stature, so that among the clouds its treetop proved to be. (Ezekiel 31:3)
- The tree grew up and became strong, and its very height finally reached the heavens, and it was visible to the extremity of the whole earth. (Daniel 4:11)
- For the purpose of organizing a slaughter it has been sharpened, for the purpose of its getting a glitter it has been polished. Or shall we exult? Is it rejecting the scepter of my own son, as it does every tree? (Ezekiel 21:10)
