

Ezekiel 23:14 And she kept adding to her acts of prostitution when she got to see the men in carvings upon the wall, images of Chaldeans carved in vermilion.

[6] - References:

- So you, also, when you have done all the things assigned to you, say; We are good-for-nothing slaves. What we have done is what we ought to have done. (Luke 17:10)
- He is set in opposition and lifts himself up over everyone who is called god or an object of reverence, so that he sits down in the temple of The God, publicly showing himself to be a god. (2 Thessalonians 2:4)
- So I went in and began to see, and, look! There was every representation of creeping things and loathsome beasts, and all the dungy idols of the house of Israel, the carving being upon the wall all round about. (Ezekiel 8:10)
- Tell it among the nations and publish it. And lift up a signal, publish it. Hide nothing, O men. Say, Babylon has been captured. Bel has been put to shame. Merodach has become terrified. Her images have been put to shame. Her dungy idols have become terrified. (Jeremiah 50:2)
- The one saying; I am going to build for myself a roomy house and commodious upper chambers, and my windows must be widened out for it, and the paneling will be with cedar and smeared with vermilion. (Jeremiah 22:14)
- So you kept making your prostitution abound toward the land of Canaan, toward the Chaldeans, and even in this you did not get satisfaction. (Ezekiel 16:29)