- There should not be found in you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, anyone who employs divination, a practitioner of magic or anyone who looks for omens or a sorcerer. (Deuteronomy 18:10)
- Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and you must say to them, to the shepherds; This is what the Sovereign Lord Yehowah has said; Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who have become feeders of themselves! Is it not the flock that the shepherds ought to feed? (Ezekiel 34:2)
- The fat is what you eat, and with the wool you clothe your own selves. The plump animal is what you slaughter. The flock itself you do not feed. (Ezekiel 34:3)
- The sickened ones you have not strengthened, and the ailing one you have not healed, and the broken one you have not bandaged, and the dispersed one you have not brought back, and the lost one you have not sought to find, but with harshness you have had them in subjection, even with tyranny. (Ezekiel 34:4)
- And they were gradually scattered because of there being no shepherd, so that they became food for every wild beast of the field, and they continued to be scattered. (Ezekiel 34:5)
- Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Yehowah has said to them; Here I am, I myself, and I shall certainly judge between a plump sheep and a lean sheep. (Ezekiel 34:20)
- For the reason that with flank and with shoulder you kept pushing and with your horns you kept shoving all the sickened ones until you had scattered them to the outside. (Ezekiel 34:21)
- And after that, is the utterance of Yehowah, I shall give Zedekiah the king of Judah and his servants and the people and those who are remaining over in this city from the pestilence, from the sword and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, even into the hand of their enemies and into the
