

Ezekiel 27:7^{..}

Linen in various colors from Egypt your cloth expanse happened to be, in order for it to serve as your sail. Blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple from the islands of Elishah are what your deck covering proved to be.

[7] - References:

- And the weight of the nose rings of gold that he had requested amounted to one thousand seven hundred gold shekels, besides the moon-shaped ornaments and the eardrops and the garments of wool dyed reddish purple that were upon the kings of Midian and besides the necklaces that were on the necks of the camels. (Judges 8:26)
- With an east wind you wreck the ships of Tarshish. (Psalms 48:7)
- With coverlets I have bedecked my divan, with many-colored things, linen of Egypt. (Proverbs 7:16)
- And blue thread, and wool dyed reddish purple, and coccus scarlet material, and fine linen, and goat's hair. (Exodus 25:4)
- Silver beaten into plates is what is brought in even from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the workmanship of a craftsman and of the hands of a metalworker, their clothing is blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple. They are all the workmanship of skilled people. (Jeremiah 10:9)
- And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim. (1 Chronicles 1:7)
- And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim. (Genesis 10:4)