

Ezekiel 42:12 And like the entrances of the dining rooms that were toward the south was the entrance at the head of the way, the way before the corresponding stone wall toward the east, when one comes in to them.

[1] - References:

- And from below these dining rooms the entryway was to the east, when one comes in to them from the outer courtyard. (Ezekiel 42:9)