

Ezekiel 48:9^{••}

As regards the contribution that you should contribute to Yehowah, the length will be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width ten thousand.

[1] - References:

- And on the boundary of Judah, from the eastern border to the western border, the contribution that you people should contribute should prove to be twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and the length according to one of the portions from the eastern border to the western border. And the sanctuary must prove to be in the midst of it. (Ezekiel 48:8)