

Ezekiel 5:1^{••} And as for you, O Son of Man, take for yourself a sharp sword. As a barbers' razor you will take it for yourself, and you must make it pass along upon your head and upon your beard, and you must take for yourself weighing scales and divide the hair¹ in portions.

Footnote: Literally, divide them

- And out of his mouth there protrudes a sharp long sword, that he may strike the nations with it, and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron. He treads too the winepress of the anger of the wrath of God the Almighty. (Revelation 19:15)
- For the word of God is alive and exerts power and is sharper than any two-edged sword and pierces even to the dividing of soul and spirit, and of joints and their marrow, and is able to discern thoughts and intentions of the heart. (Hebrews 4:12)
- So Hanun took the servants of David and shaved them and cut their garments in half to their buttocks and sent them away. (1 Chronicles 19:4)
- They should not produce baldness upon their heads, and the extremity of their beard they should not shave, and on their flesh they should not make an incision. (Leviticus 21:5)
- And their head they should not shave, and the hair of the head they should not wear loose. They should by all means clip the hair of their heads. (Ezekiel 44:20)
- And as for you, O son of man, set for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to enter. From the one land both of them should go forth, and an index hand should be cut out, at the head of the way to the city it should be cut out. (Ezekiel 21:19)
