- So I got up and went forth to the valley plain, and, look! The glory of Yehowah was standing there, like the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar, and I went falling upon my face. (Ezekiel 3:23)
- And the cloud began to cover the tent of meeting, and Yehowah's glory filled the tabernacle. (Exodus 40:34)
- There was something like the appearance of the bow that occurs in a cloud mass on the day of a pouring rain. That is how the appearance was of the brightness round about. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yehowah. When I got to see it, then I fell upon my face, and I began to hear the voice of one speaking. (Ezekiel 1:28)
- And the hand of Yehowah came to be upon me there and he proceeded to say to me; Get up, go forth to the valley plain, and there I shall speak with you. (Ezekiel 3:22)
- And as regards the glory of the God of Israel, it was taken up from over the cherubs over which it happened to be to the threshold of the house, and he began calling out to the man that was clothed with the linen, at whose hips there was the secretary's inkhorn. (Ezekiel 9:3)
- And the glory of Yehowah went ascending from over the midst of the city and began to stand over the mountain that is to the east of the city. (Ezekiel 11:23)
