- Like a blossom he has come forth and is cut off, and he runs away like the shadow and does not keep existing. (Job 14:2)
- Look! You have made my days just a few, and my life's duration is as nothing in front of you. Surely every earthling man, though standing firm, is nothing but an exhalation. (Psalms 39:5)
- Like a shadow when it declines, I am obliged to go away, I have been shaken off like a locust. (Psalms 109:23)
- Man himself bears resemblance to a mere exhalation, his days are like a passing shadow. (Psalms 144:4)
- Whereas you do not know what YOUR life will be tomorrow. For you are a mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing. (James 4:14)
- My heart has been struck just like vegetation and is dried up, for I have forgotten to eat my food. (Psalms 102:4)
- The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered, because the very spirit of Yehowah has blown upon it. Surely the people are green grass. (Isaiah 40:7)
- And the rich one over his humiliation, because like a flower of the vegetation he will pass away. (James 1:10)
- For all flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like a blossom of grass, the grass becomes withered, and the flower falls off. (1 Peter 1:24)
- And their inhabitants will be feeble-handed, they will simply be terrified and will be ashamed. They must become as vegetation of the field and green tender grass, grass of the roofs, when there is a scorching before the east wind. (2 Kings 19:26)

- My days themselves have become swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and they come to an end in hopelessness. (Job 7:6)

- By reproofs against error you have corrected man, and you consume his desirable things just as a moth does. Surely every earthling man is an exhalation. (Psalms 39:11)

- For who is there knowing what good a man has in life for the number of the days of his vain life, when he spends them like a shadow? For who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun? (Ecclesiastes 6:12)
