

John 12:27~ Now my soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me out of this hour. Nevertheless, this is why I have come to this hour.

1· Jesus knew the events that were upcoming, and that he was going up to Jerusalem to die, so his soul became troubled, and he asked his heavenly Father, to save him out of this hour. Yet he also realized, that this was his very purpose in coming to this situation, to honor the Father, by fulfilling his word in the scriptures, and this he was glad to accomplish.

[Question] What did Jesus then know was coming upon him very soon and so what did he ask of Yehowah God?

[Question] What though, did Jesus also realize, about why he had arrived at this juncture?

2· While I was with you in the temple day after day, you did not stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour and the authority of darkness. (Luke 22:53)

[Question] What did Jesus say to his opposers, when they came forth in the middle of the night to arrest him?

3· He that is safeguarding the fig tree will himself eat its fruit, and he that is guarding his master will be honored. (Proverbs 27:18)

[Question] How does the Proverb compare the farmer, to the one honoring his master?

4· Yes, my own soul has been very much disturbed, and you O Yehowah, how long? (Psalms 6:3)

[Question] How did the Psalmist feel toward his God?

5· Then he said to them; My soul is deeply grieved, even to death. Stay here, and keep on the watch with me. (Matthew 26:38)

[Question] What did Jesus say to his disciples in the garden before his arrest, showing how he then felt?

6· And he said to them; My soul is deeply grieved, even to death. Stay here, and keep on the watch. (Mark 14:34)

[Question] What did Jesus repeatedly say to his disciples, when in the garden, praying for Yehowah God's help?

- 7· Indeed, I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and how I am being distressed until it is finished! (Luke 12:50)

[Question] How did Jesus feel about his baptism or life course, leading to his sacrificial death?

- 8· Saying; Father, if you wish, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, let, not my will, but yours take place. (Luke 22:42)

[Question] What did Jesus ask of his heavenly Father, yet whose will did he want to control circumstances?

- 9· In the days of his flesh, Christ offered up supplications and also petitions, to the One who was able to save him out of death, with strong outcries and tears, and he was favorably heard for his godly fear. (Hebrews 5:7)

[Question] What did Jesus offer up to his God, and why was he favorably heard?

- 10· Like water I have been poured out, and all my bones have been separated from one another. My heart has become like wax. It has melted deep in my inward parts. (Psalms 22:14)

[Question] How did the Psalmist prophetically show the feelings of Yehowah God's Messiah then, as he prepared to die?

- 11· Why are you in despair, O my soul, and why are you boisterous within me? Wait for God, for I shall yet laud him as the grand salvation of my person. (Psalms 42:5)

[Question] How did the Psalmist express the feelings of Yehowah God's Messiah then?

- 12· Because of the trouble of his soul he will see, he will be satisfied. By means of his knowledge, the righteous one, my servant, will bring a righteous standing to many people, and their errors he himself will bear. (Isaiah 53:11)

[Question] What would this servant of Yehowah God impart to others, and what standing would this give to men before their God?

- 13· Again, for the second time, he went off and prayed, saying; My Father, if it is not possible for this to pass away except I drink it, let your will take place. (Matthew 26:42)

[Question] What did Jesus repeatedly pray for in the garden, before his arrest, for whose will did he want to take place?

- 14· But getting into an agony he continued praying more earnestly, and his sweat became as drops of blood falling to the ground. (Luke 22:44)

[Question] How profusely was Jesus sweating, as he prayed to Yehowah God for relief from his chosen course?
