

John 12:32~ And yet I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw men of all sorts¹ to me.

Footnote: Or, all men

1· Then Jesus spoke about the events that would soon follow regarding him and his course. He was to die, within the week, but he would be lifted up to heavenly life, and would then draw men of all sorts to him, calling them also to heavenly life with himself and Yehowah God.

[Question] What events did Jesus now reference, for what events were a week away, and what would he then do?

2· Therefore Jesus said; When once you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my own initiative, but just as the Father taught me, I speak these things. (John 8:28)

[Question] What did Jesus tell people that they would come to know, when they held him up respectfully, and looked to him in faith?

3· So, then, as through one trespass, the result to men of all sorts was condemnation, likewise also through one act of justification, the result to men of all sorts, is a declaring of them righteous for life. (Romans 5:18)

[Question] What resulted from the one act of trespass of Adam, for all other men?

[Question] What results from the one act of justification, through Jesus Christ, for all men?

4· But we behold Jesus, who has been made a little lower than angels, crowned with glory and honor, for having suffered death, that he by God's undeserved kindness, might taste death for every man. (Hebrews 2:9)

[Question] What form did Jesus enjoy as a man, relative to angels?

[Question] What though, does Jesus enjoy for his having suffered death as a man?

5· Moses at once made a serpent of copper, and placed it upon the signal pole, and it did occur, that if a serpent had bitten a man and he gazed at the copper serpent, he then kept alive. (Numbers 21:9)

[Question] How did the copper serpent save Israelites who looked to it in faith, and what did this represent concerning Jesus Christ?

- 6· This, in order, that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he said to signify, what sort of death he was destined to die. (John 18:32)

[Question] How did Jesus show others the type of death, that he was about to die?
