

John 13:30~ Therefore, after he received the morsel, he went out immediately. And it was night.

1· So after Jesus had given Judas the morsel, he left immediately, and it was already night.

[Question] Where then, did Judas Iscariot go, and what time was it already?

2· When, now, it had become evening, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. (Matthew 26:20)

[Question] When did the Passover supper begin that night?
