

John 14:18~

I shall not leave you bereaved.¹ I am coming to you.

Footnote: Or, orphans Greek, or·pha·nous'; Latin, or'fa·nos

1· Now to comfort them, he promised that he would not leave them bereaved, for he knew that within the next day he was going to die. Yet he also knew, that he was within three days going to be resurrected, and then they would rejoice. So he did not want them to be overcome by their grief.

[Question] What did Jesus say next to them, to comfort them over his going away?

2· Teaching them to observe, all the things I have commanded you. And, look! I am with you all the days until the conclusion of the system of things. (Matthew 28:20)

[Question] What did Jesus state, that he would continue with after his ascension to heaven?
