

John 15:15~ I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, because all the things I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you.

1· Then Jesus told them, that he no longer would call them slaves, for a master does not share all things with a slave. Yet he now could call them friends, for he had shared with them, all the things that he had learned from his Father, Yehowah God in heaven.

[Question] What did Jesus then tell them, that he would no longer call them, and why?

[Question] Why now, would he be able to call them friends?

2· Moreover, I say to you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after this, are not able to do anything more. (Luke 12:4)

[Question] Why did Jesus show, that they should not fear mere men, for what only could these men do to them, and yet what could Yehowah God do beyond that?

3· For I have not held back from telling you, all the counsel of God. (Acts of Apostles 20:27)

[Question] What did Paul confess, that he had not held back from telling other men?

4· A prophet I shall raise up for them from the midst of their brothers, like you. I shall indeed put my words in his mouth, and he will certainly speak to them, all that I shall command him. (Deuteronomy 18:18)

[Question] What kind of a prophet did Yehowah God tell Israel, through Moses, that he would raise up for them in time?

5· What he has seen and heard, of this he bears witness, but no man is accepting his witness. (John 3:32)

[Question] What did Jesus show, that men bear witness to, yet did men accept his witness?

6· The intimacy with Yehowah belongs to those fearful of him, also his covenant, to cause them to know it. (Psalms 25:14)

[Question] Who will Yehowah God become intimate with as his friends, and what must they know and keep?

7. For the Sovereign Lord Yehowah will not do a thing, unless he has revealed his confidential matter to his servants the prophets. (Amos 3:7)

[Question] What will Yehowah God do to warn his people before he takes any action at all?
