

John 1:10~ He was in the world, and the world came into existence through him, but the world did not know him.

1· This one was already in the world, for he had been born thirty years earlier to earthly parents. The entire world had come into existence through this one, for he had made the earth, and all the things in it, yet the world of his day, did not know him.

[Question] Where was Jesus at the start of John the Baptist's ministry?

[Question] What had come into existence through Jesus Christ?

[Question] Did the world of his day recognize this about him, and his powerful and glorious past?

2· So the Word became flesh and resided among us, and we had a view of his glory, a glory, such as belongs to an only-begotten son from a father, and he was full of undeserved kindness and truth. (John 1:14)

[Question] What did the Word of God then become, and where did he reside?

[Question] What did he possess, as though an only-begotten son, and what was he full of from Yehowah God?

3· All things came into existence through him, and apart from him, not even one thing came into existence. What has come into existence. (John 1:3)

[Question] What things came into existence through Jesus Christ?

[Question] Has anything in creation come into existence, apart from Jesus Christ?

4· And he will come up like a twig before one, and like a root out of waterless land. No stately form does he have, nor any splendor, and when we shall see him, there is not the appearance, so that we should desire him. (Isaiah 53:2)

[Question] How was it shown that Jesus Christ would come up within Israel, and would he be a desirable Messiah?

5· Because by means of him all other things were created in the heavens and upon the earth, the things visible, and the things invisible, no matter whether they are thrones or lordships or governments or authorities. All other things have been created through him, and for him. (Colossians 1:16)

[Question] What things came into existence through Jesus Christ, during his heavenly dwelling with Yehowah God?

[Question] Who were all these things created through, and for?
