

John 1:14~ So, the Word became flesh and resided among us,¹ and we had a view of his glory, a glory, such as belongs to an only-begotten son from a father, and he was full of undeserved kindness and truth.

Footnote: Literally, tented See (Revelation 21:3) Footnotes

1· So then, this Word of God, who had existed in heaven for eons of time before ever coming to the earth, became a man, and resided among mankind as a fleshly being. John then shows, that we had a view of his glory, though not the true fullness of that glory he has in heaven, and that it was the kind of fullness, that belongs to an only-begotten son from a father. Christ was full of undeserved kindness and truth.

[Question] Where did this Word of God originally reside, and for how long a time?

[Question] What then, did Jesus do, and how did John describe the glory he had?
