

John 20:13~ And they said to her; Woman, why are you weeping? She said to them; They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have laid him.

1· So the two angels asked her, why she was standing there weeping. She answered, that she was looking for the body of her Lord, Jesus, who had been removed from his grave, and she had no idea where he had been taken away to.

[Question] What then, did the two angels ask of Mary, and how did she answer, for what was her concern?
