

John 20:26~ Well, eight days later his disciples were again indoors, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and he stood in their midst and said; May you have peace.

1· So then, eight days after his first appearance to them while they were indoors, and Thomas was with them, Jesus came to them again, although the door was locked and stood in their midst, again saying; May you have peace.

[Question] What then, did Jesus do some eight days later, to prove his resurrection to Thomas also?

2· Therefore, when it was late on that day, the first of the week, and although the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them; May you have peace. (John 20:19)

[Question] What did Jesus state to his apostles on both occasions, as he entered the locked room where they were?

3· This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after his being raised up from the dead. (John 21:14)

[Question] What was the third occasion that Jesus appeared to his apostles?

4· And that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. (1 Corinthians 15:5)

[Question] Who did Jesus first appear to?
