

John 2:10~

And said to him; Every other man puts out the fine wine first, and when people are intoxicated, the inferior. You, have reserved the fine wine until now.

1· So the director of the feast called the groom to himself and told him, that at most weddings, they put out the fine wine first, and then when people are intoxicated, they bring out wine that is inferior. Yet he congratulated the groom, for saving the finest wine for last. Thus he testified, that this was a superior wine, indeed a god-given vintage.

[Question] What did the director of the feast then say, when approaching the groom?

[Question] What did his witness testify to, as to the quality of the wine?

2· No one that has drunk old wine wants new, for he says; The old is nice. (Luke 5:39)

[Question] What did Jesus' illustration show about anyone now wanting, and why?
