

John 4:27~

Now at this point his disciples arrived, and they began to wonder because he was speaking with a woman. Of course, no one said: What are you looking for? Or; Why do you talk with her?

1· Now right at this point his disciples arrived, and they began to wonder why he was speaking to a woman. They of course said nothing to this effect, but nonetheless, they were wondering it among themselves.

[Question] Who then arrived back from that city, while Jesus was still speaking to the woman?

[Question] What were they then wondering among themselves?
