

John 4:41~

Consequently many more believed on account of what he said.

1· So then many more believed on account of his extended stay with them, and of the things, that he later told them. Indeed the fields were white for harvesting, for there were many who willingly listened, and put faith in Jesus.

[Question] What then, happened as a result of his initial witness to this Samaritan woman?

[Question] What was indeed the situation there?

2· My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. (John 10:27)
