

John 5:13~ But the healed man did not know who he was, for Jesus had turned aside, there being a crowd in the place.

1· Yet the healed man did not know who it was that had done this for him, because Jesus had turned aside immediately, and there was quite a large crowd of people there.

[Question] What though, did the healed man then not know, and why?