

John 5:34~ However, I do not accept the witness from man, but I say these things, that you may be saved.

1· Jesus himself however, did not put stock in the witness of men, but only in the witness of the Holy Spirit from his Father. His purpose in saying these things to the religious leaders, was so that they might be saved from their wicked course, one of rejecting God and his approved servants.

[Question] Whose witness alone, did Jesus put stock in?

[Question] What was Jesus' purpose in saying these things to the religious leaders of the Jews?

2· True, I knew that you always hear me, but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order, that they might believe that you sent me forth. (John 11:42)

[Question] For whose sake did Jesus speak to Yehowah God, asking him to bear witness?
