

John 5:5~ But a certain man was there who had been in his sickness for thirty-eight years.

1· In this place there was a man lying down who had been thirty-eight years in his sickness.

[Question] Who did Jesus then encounter that was lying down here, and how long had he been in his sickness?