

John 6:12~

But when they had their fill he said to his disciples; Gather together the fragments that remain over, so that nothing is wasted.

- 1· Then when all had eaten to satisfaction Jesus instructed his disciples to gather together all that remained over, so that nothing would be wasted.

[Question] What did Jesus tell his disciples, when all of the crowd had eaten to satisfaction?

- 2· So they all ate and were satisfied. (Mark 6:42)

[Question] How many then ate this meal, and was there enough for all to eat?

- 3· Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law got to see what she had gleaned. After that she took out what food she had left over, when she had satisfied herself, and gave it to her. (Ruth 2:18)

[Question] How did Ruth fare, when gleaning in the fields of Boaz?

- 4· And it came about, that as soon as the vessels were full, she went on to say to her son; Do bring still another vessel near to me. But he said to her; There is no other vessel. At that the oil stopped. (2 Kings 4:6)

[Question] When only did the food run out for Elijah, and the woman he stayed with?

- 5· So all ate and were satisfied, and they took up the surplus of fragments, twelve baskets full. (Matthew 14:20)

[Question] How many provision baskets full of food were then taken up, as a surplus of fragments?
