

John 6:16~

When evening fell, his disciples went down to the sea.

1· When it became evening time his disciples went down to the sea to their boat.

[Question] Where did Jesus disciples then go that evening, and where were they headed for?

2· Then, without delay, he compelled his disciples to board the boat, and go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away. (Matthew 14:22)

[Question] Where did Jesus then command his disciples to go to, and what did he himself then do?

3· Evening having now fallen, the boat was in the midst of the sea, but he was alone on the land. (Mark 6:47)

[Question] Later that night where were his disciples, and where was Jesus?
