

John 6:17~ And, boarding a boat, they set out across the sea for Capernaum. Well, by now it had grown dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

1· So his disciples boarded a boat, and started across the Sea of Galilee, heading for Capernaum on the opposite shore of the lake. When it became dark, Jesus had not yet come down from the mountain to them.

[Question] Where then, did his disciples go to, and where were they headed?

[Question] Where then did Jesus go, after letting the crowd disperse?