

John 6:35~ Jesus said to them; I am the bread of life. He that comes to me, will not get hungry at all, and he that exercises faith in me, will never get thirsty at all.

1· Jesus then made his previous words plain to them, stating, that he himself was the bread from heaven, the bread of life. Then he showed, that the one who would come to him, would never get hungry at all, and that the one that exercised his faith in him, would never get thirsty at all. Now Jesus was speaking symbolically in a spiritual sense, that those putting faith in him, and following after his example, would also be spiritually well fed, and never go thirsting for understanding or knowledge of God, and of his grand purpose.

[Question] What did Jesus then call himself?

[Question] What did he mean by saying, that anyone coming to him would never get hungry or thirsty again, was he talking about physical things or spiritual ones?

2· Whoever drinks from the water that I will give him, will never get thirsty at all, but the water that I will give him, will become in him, a fountain of water, bubbling up, to impart everlasting life. (John 4:14)

[Question] What did Jesus show, that the spiritual truths he imparted to others, would become like within them, and how would others benefit from this bubbling effect?

3· Now on the last day, the great day of the festival, Jesus was standing up and he cried out, saying; If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. (John 7:37)

[Question] What did Jesus cry out on the final day of the festival of the Jews?

[Question] Where then, must people of Israel go to, for the spiritual truth, that would truly satisfy them?

4· And the spirit and the bride keep on saying; Come! And let anyone hearing say; Come! And let anyone thirsting come, let anyone that wishes, take life's water free. (Revelation 22:17)

[Question] What open invitation do the spirit and the bride make to all mankind since the First Century C.E?

- 5· They will not go hungry, neither will they go thirsty, nor will parching heat or sun strike them. For the One who is having pity upon them will lead them, and by the springs of water he will conduct them. (Isaiah 49:10)

[Question] What did Isaiah prophesy, about the one who would lead God's people, and where he would lead them to?

- 6· Happy are those hungering and thirsting for righteousness, since they will be filled. (Matthew 5:6)

[Question] Why are people hungering and thirsting for righteousness to fare?

- 7· Because there is one loaf, we, although many, are one body, for we are all partaking of that one loaf. (1 Corinthians 10:17)

[Question] What does the joint partaking of the one loaf at the Memorial celebration, depict about the body of Christ?