

John 6:36~ But I have said to you, you have even seen me,¹ and yet, do not believe.

Footnote: Me P⁶⁶, 7⁵BD; !ASy^{C,S} omit

1· So Jesus drew home his point, that though like the Israelites there in the wilderness they had seen him, just like those ones saw the manna, and yet they did not believe in him.

[Question] How did Jesus then compare the ones listening to him, to the Israelites there in the wilderness, under Moses?

[Question] What though, did they not believe, just like those Israelites?

2· But there are some of you that do not believe. For from the beginning, Jesus knew who were the ones not believing, and who was the one that would betray him. (John 6:64)

[Question] What did Jesus tell some of his disciples, for what did he know about them from the start?
