

John 8:25~ Therefore they began to say to him; Who are you? Jesus said to them; Why am I even speaking to you at all?¹

Footnote: Or, Just what I have been saying to you

1· So they then showed by their answer, that they were simply not getting the point of his arguments. They said to him; Who are you? So in response Jesus said to them; Why am I even speaking to you at all? For his spoken word to them made no progress within them.

[Question] What then, did they show by their answer to Jesus?

[Question] Since Jesus' words were making no spiritual progress with them, what did he say to them?
