

John 9:14~ Incidentally, it was Sabbath, on the day that Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

- 1· Also it happened to be a Sabbath on the day when Jesus performed this healing work for the man born blind.

[Question] What day of the week was it, when Jesus healed this man?

- 2· But in response, the presiding officer of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus did the cure on the Sabbath, began to say to the crowd; There are six days on which work ought to be done, on them, therefore, come and be cured, and not on the Sabbath day. (Luke 13:14)

[Question] How did the religious leaders generally feel about Jesus doing healings on the Sabbath, and why?

- 3· With that the man immediately became sound in health, and he picked up his cot and began to walk. Now on that day, it was a Sabbath. (John 5:9)

[Question] What day of the week was it, when Jesus healed a crippled man, and what did he tell him to do with his cot, he had once laid upon?

- 4· After he said these things, he spit on the ground and made a clay with the saliva, and put his clay upon the man's eyes (John 9:6)

[Question] How did Jesus effect this healing of the man born blind?