

John 9:30~ In answer the man said to them; This certainly is a marvel, that you do not know where he is from, and yet, he opened my eyes.

1· So the man bore witness, that it was a marvel to him, that they did not know where he came forth from, and yet he had opened his eyes. Would not anyone think this way, who was not dead set against Jesus, and prejudiced against him.

[Question] What did the man born blind, find it hard to understand, about their failure to put faith in Jesus?

[Question] What question must we also ask today, in light of this testimony?

2· In answer Jesus said to him; Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet, do not know these things? (John 3:10)

[Question] What did Jesus tell Nicodemus that he as a teacher in Israel should know the way of well?
