

John 9:9~ Some would say; This is he. Others would say; Not at all, but he is like him. The man would say; I am he.

1· So some would say, that it was the man, and others that it was only someone who looked like him. The man himself though, bore witness, that he was in fact the same man.

[Question] How was there disagreement among the people in their disbelief?

[Question] What though, would the man witness to about himself?
