

Ephesians 4:4~ One body there is, and one spirit, even as you were called in the one hope, to which you were called.

1· Paul now reasons with his spirit anointed brothers. There is only one body of Christ, and they are all members of it. There is only one spirit within them all, coming from the one source, Yehowah God. They were all called to just one hope, that of being a new creation, and having immortality, and coming into God's very presence, to serve him there forever.

[Question] How many bodies of Christ are there?

[Question] How many spirits are there?

[Question] How many hopes do they look forward to attaining, and what is that hope?

2· Since this is the single hope to which they were all called, there is no cause in any of this, for division within the congregation of God. They should be fitly united as one body is united, with all of its members cooperating and working together in peace.

[Question] Since these things are so, then should they be all united in thought and mind?

[Question] How then, should the body work together and cooperate together?

3· So we, although many, are one body in union with Christ, but members belonging individually to one another. (Romans 12:5)

[Question] What are all anointed Christians, though many different members of the body of Christ, and who do we collectively belong to?

4· And that he might fully reconcile both peoples in one body to God through the torture stake, because he had killed off the enmity by means of himself. (Ephesians 2:16)

[Question] What does the torture stake of the Christ kill off, between Jews and Gentiles?

5· Now there are varieties of gifts, but there is the same spirit. (1 Corinthians 12:4)

[Question] What does the same spirit do differently within individual members of the body?

- 6· Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for according to his great mercy he gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. (1 Peter 1:3)

[Question] Why is Yehowah God the father to be blessed forever, by his anointed sons?

- 7· But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. (1 Corinthians 6:17)

[Question] What is anyone who is joined to the Lord, in the spirit?

- 8· Because there is one loaf, we, although many, are one body, for we are all partaking of that one loaf. (1 Corinthians 10:17)

[Question] What does the one loaf symbolize about the body?
